About GIBCLA Summer School 2015:

GIBCLA Summer school 2015 was a grand success with participants from India and abroad. The Indian Business and Commercial Laws Course included 45 hours of intensive teaching and exclusive practical training.

Legal expertise blended with theoretical instructor based teaching from GNLU faculty created high impact on participants by enhancing their knowledge on indigenous legal system for business and commercial transactions. Following are the few testimonials received from the participants:

I learned a lot about Indian Business and Commercial Laws, even more than I initially expected. The lecturers were really good and definitely knew how to share their knowledge with people who were unfamiliar with the legal system of India”---

Merel Van Helvoit (Radboud University)

“

I learnt a lot about new avenues of law which would not have been covered by a regular course of law. I really enjoyed my stay at GNLU. They have really good faculty and infrastructure”.It was a memorable experience---

Rinika Jain (G. J. Advani College
.Mumbai University)

“

My main interest in this summer school was the exclusive sessions by faculty and other resource persons, which I really enjoyed. Everything organised by the Organizing Committee members was accurate. I get to learn a lot from the faculty of different fields with their extensive practise knowledge overall. I enjoyed the summer school.”

Falguni Thakkar (The MSU Law Faculty of Baroda)
