

International Council of Jurists

(Student Division), London

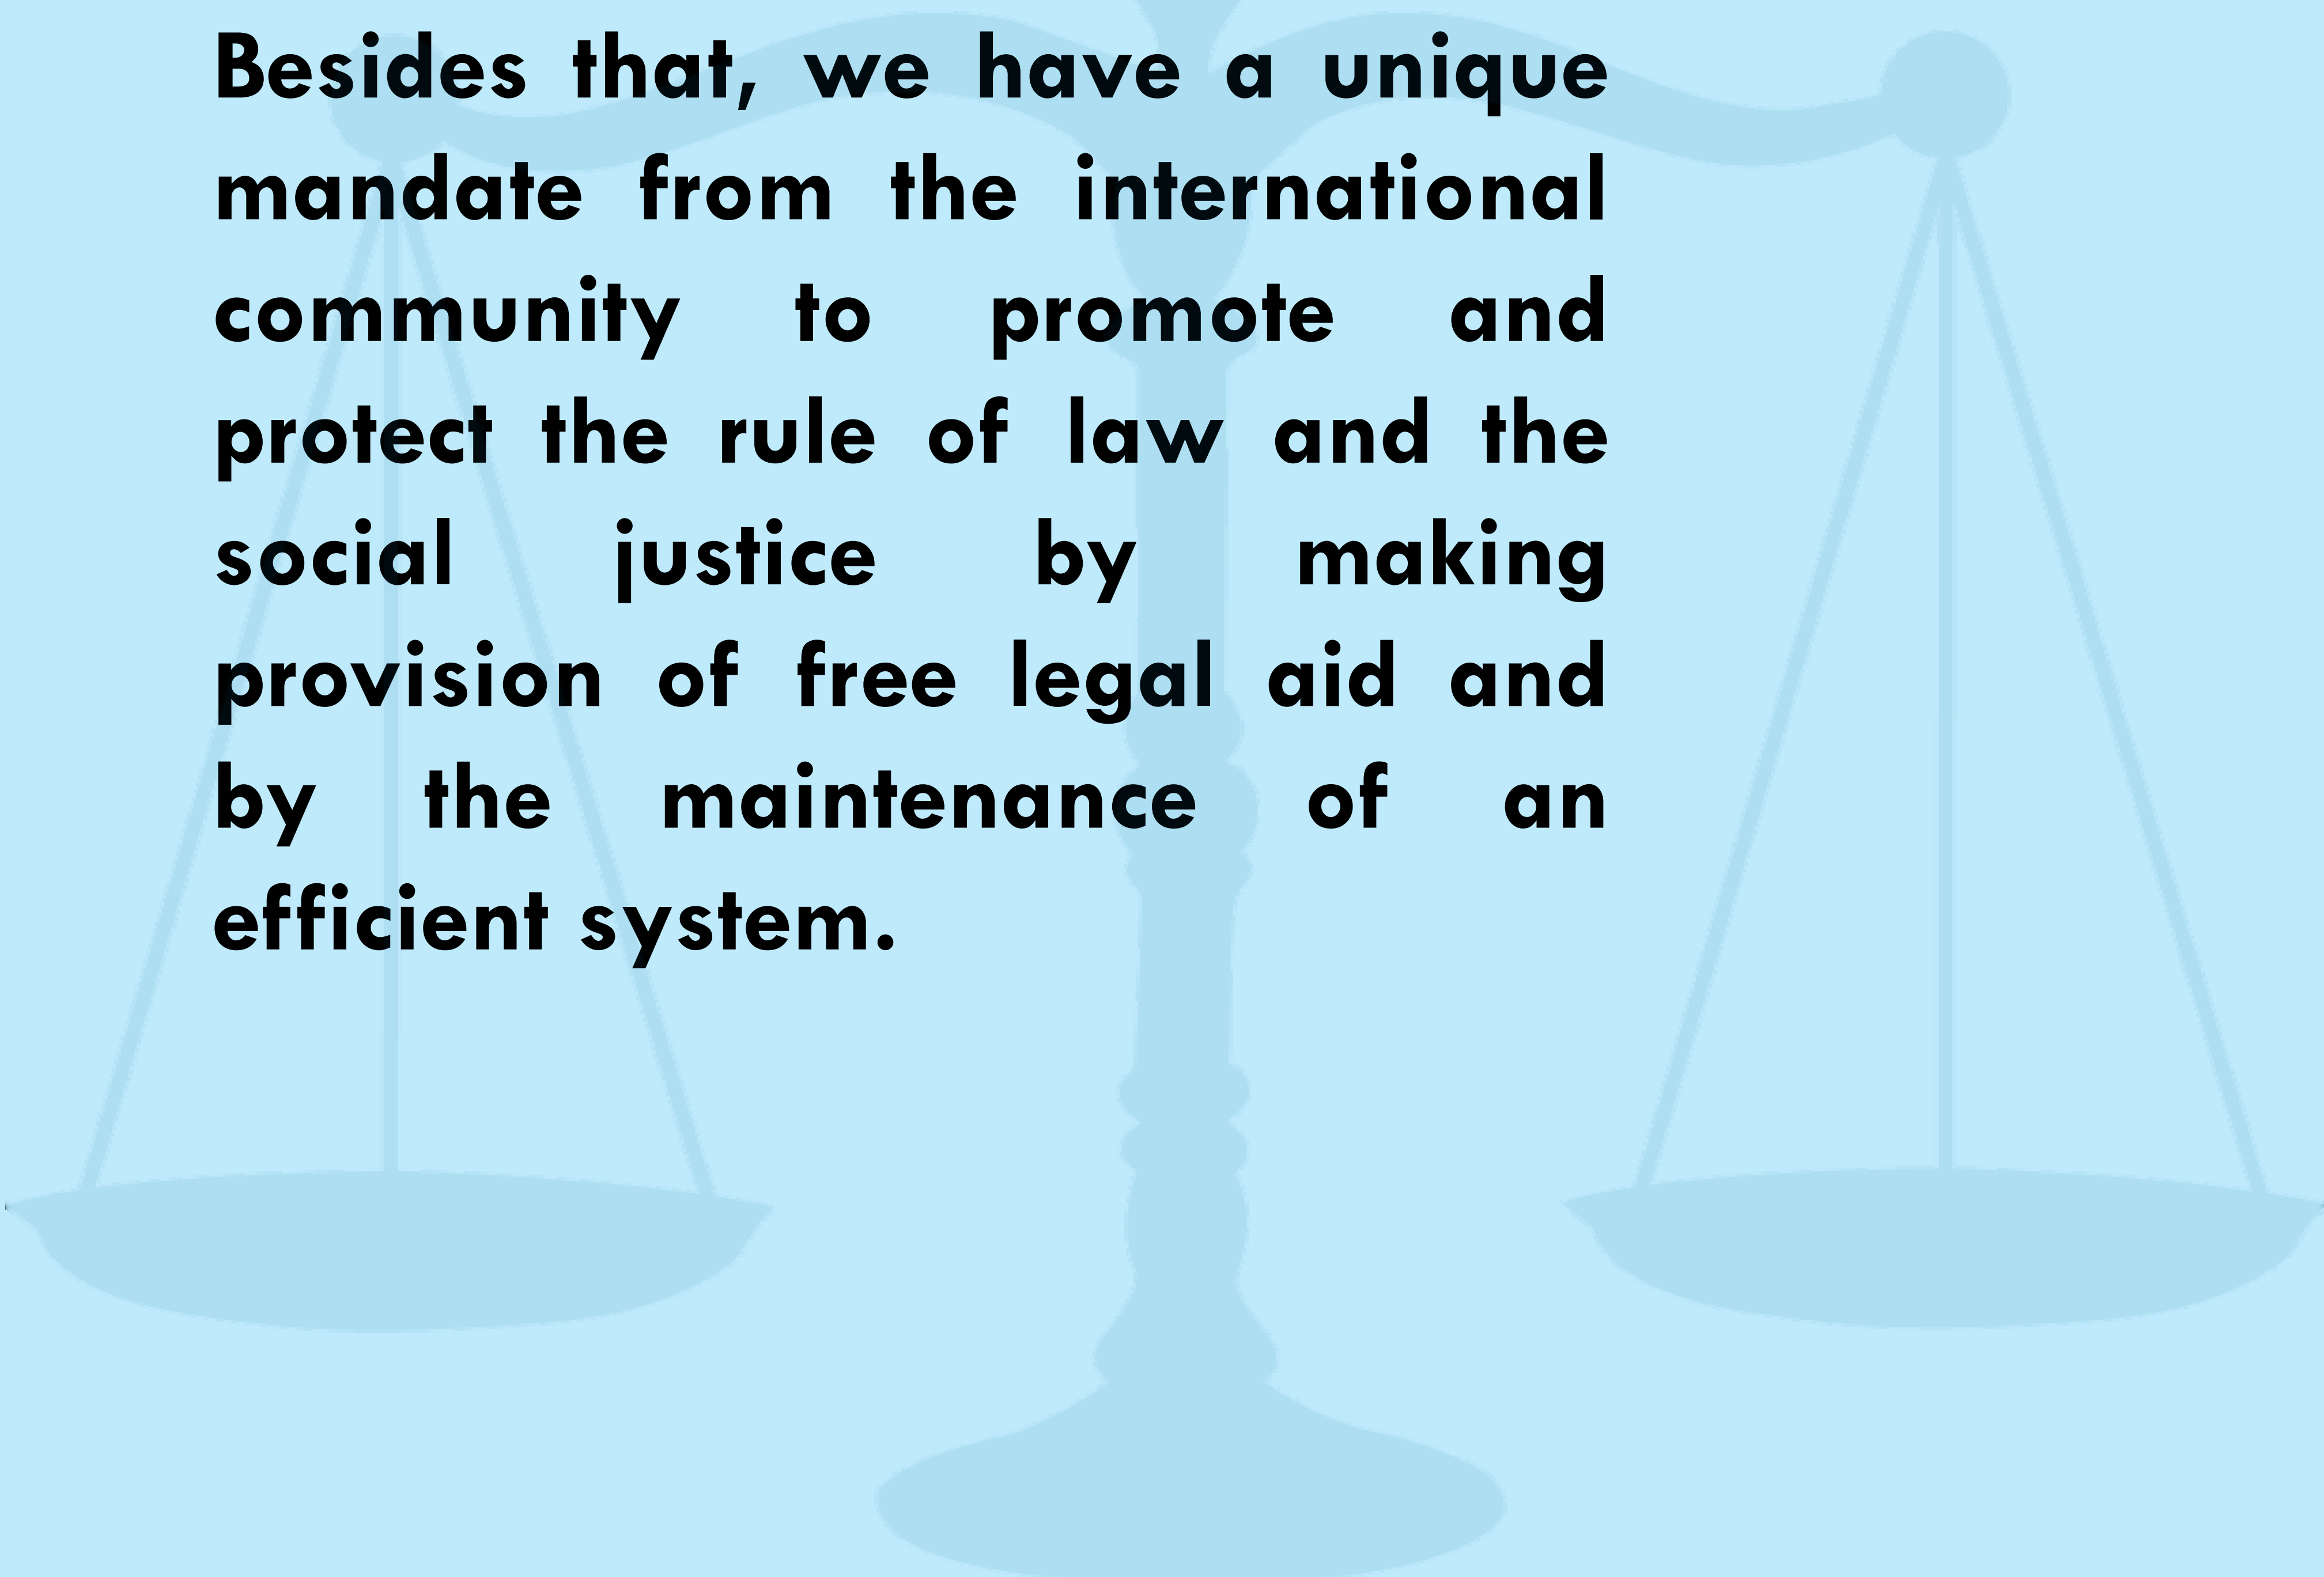

President

Dr. Adish C Aggarwala,
President,
International Council of Jurists

It is my great pleasure as President of the International Council of Jurists to welcome you to our new website. Nowadays, the borders between countries are getting less and less visible. That is the reason we as lawyers, jurists and judges need to start working together in order to accomplish international demand of legal support. I am therefore pleased to introduce you The international Council of Jurists. It is a body of jurists from different countries working together to establish a healthy development of justice and equality around the world. The International Council of Jurists is actively involved in organizing campaigns for legal awareness. Besides that, we have a unique mandate from the international community to promote and protect the rule of law and the social justice by making provision of free legal aid and by the maintenance of an efficient system.
